Get involved in the campaign

With a new Labour Prime Minister and a new Government, we have the opportunity of renewing our Party.

The sad death of Piara Khabra MP means we have a by-election on our doorstep. It presents us with the challenge and the opportunity to get our message across to the people of Ealing Southall.

Come along and find out how you can help..

Gordon Brown MP, our new Labour Prime Minister is urging local members and supporters to help make sure Southall stays Labour. "Piara Khabra was a tireless campaigner - we should be proud of his example. It's important we get our message across to local people. We can't do that without your help."
